

CODE OF CONDUCT

Kazi Technologies Ltd – Uganda

4.1 Professional Behavior

Kazi Technologies Ltd is committed to maintaining a professional, respectful, and inclusive workplace environment. All employees are expected to uphold high standards of conduct in their interactions with colleagues, clients, partners, and the public.

4.1.1 Respect and Integrity

Employees must:

- Treat others with dignity, fairness, and professionalism
- Act honestly and ethically in all company matters
- Avoid behavior that damages the company's reputation

Employees are expected to maintain professional communication both physically and through digital channels such as email, messaging platforms, and virtual meetings.

4.1.2 Harassment and Discrimination

Kazi Technologies Ltd maintains zero tolerance for:

- Harassment
- Bullying
- Intimidation
- Discrimination

Discrimination based on:

- Gender
- Religion
- Ethnicity
- Disability
- Age
- Nationality
- Marital status

is strictly prohibited.

Any employee found engaging in harassment or discriminatory conduct may face disciplinary action, including termination of employment.

4.1.3 Workplace Relationships

Employees must ensure personal relationships do not:

- Create conflicts of interest
- Affect workplace professionalism
- Influence business decisions unfairly

Managers and supervisors must avoid situations that compromise fairness or objectivity.

4.1.4 Substance Abuse

Employees are prohibited from:

- Reporting to work under the influence of alcohol or illegal substances
- Possessing illegal substances on company premises

Prescription medication that affects performance or safety should be disclosed where necessary.

4.1.5 Workplace Violence

Threats, intimidation, or acts of violence are strictly prohibited and may result in immediate disciplinary action or legal reporting.

4.2 Dress Code

Kazi Technologies Ltd promotes a professional appearance appropriate to the work environment and client interactions.

4.2.1 Standard Dress Code

Employees are expected to maintain a smart casual appearance unless otherwise specified by department or management.

Examples of acceptable attire include:

- Collared shirts
- Blouses

- Smart trousers
- Dresses
- Closed shoes

4.2.2 Unacceptable Attire

Employees should avoid:

- Offensive or inappropriate clothing
- Excessively revealing attire
- Clothing with discriminatory or offensive messaging

4.2.3 Department-Specific Requirements

Certain departments or events may require:

- Formal attire
- Branded company wear
- Safety equipment or uniforms

Employees must comply with any role-specific dress requirements.

4.2.4 Grooming and Hygiene

Employees are expected to maintain:

- Good personal hygiene
- Clean and presentable appearance

4.3 Use of Company Resources

Company resources are provided to support official business operations and must be used responsibly.

4.3.1 Acceptable Use

Employees may use company resources solely for:

- Work-related duties
- Approved business activities

Company resources include:

- Computers
- Internet access
- Email systems
- Software
- Office equipment
- Vehicles
- Communication tools

4.3.2 Limited Personal Use

Reasonable personal use may be permitted provided it:

- Does not interfere with productivity
- Does not violate company policies
- Does not incur excessive cost

4.3.3 Prohibited Use

Employees must not use company resources for:

- Illegal activities
- Fraudulent conduct
- Unauthorized commercial activities
- Offensive or discriminatory content
- Downloading malicious or pirated software

4.3.4 Monitoring

The company reserves the right to:

- Monitor use of company systems
- Audit company devices and communication platforms
- Investigate misuse where necessary

Employees should not expect complete privacy when using company-owned systems.

4.3.5 Misuse of Resources

Misuse of company property or systems may result in:

- Revocation of access
- Disciplinary action
- Financial liability
- Termination

4.4 Confidentiality

Employees are responsible for protecting confidential company and client information at all times.

4.4.1 Confidential Information

Confidential information includes but is not limited to:

- Client records
- Financial information
- Payroll data
- Internal communications
- Trade secrets
- Strategic plans
- Employee records
- Technical documentation

4.4.2 Employee Obligations

Employees must:

- Access only authorized information
- Protect confidential documents and systems
- Avoid discussing confidential matters publicly
- Use secure communication methods

4.4.3 Non-Disclosure

Employees must not disclose company or client information to:

- Unauthorized employees
- External parties
- Competitors
- Media organizations

without proper authorization.

4.4.4 Data Protection

Employees handling company or customer data must:

- Follow data protection policies
- Use secure passwords and systems
- Report suspected data breaches immediately

4.4.5 Confidentiality After Employment

Confidentiality obligations continue even after:

- Resignation
- Termination
- Contract completion

Former employees must not retain or distribute confidential materials.

4.4.6 Breach of Confidentiality

Unauthorized disclosure of confidential information may result in:

- Disciplinary action
- Legal action
- Financial penalties
- Immediate termination of employment