

DISCIPLINARY POLICY

Kazi Technologies Ltd – Uganda

5.1 Purpose of the Disciplinary Policy

Kazi Technologies Ltd is committed to maintaining a professional, productive, and respectful work environment. The disciplinary policy provides a fair and consistent framework for addressing employee misconduct, performance concerns, and violations of company policies.

The purpose of disciplinary action is to:

- Correct inappropriate behavior
- Promote accountability
- Maintain workplace standards
- Ensure fairness and consistency across the organization

Disciplinary procedures will be conducted with respect, confidentiality, and due process.

5.2 Grounds for Disciplinary Action

Employees may be subject to disciplinary action for conduct or behavior that negatively affects:

- Workplace operations
 - Company reputation
 - Employee safety
 - Compliance with company policies

5.2.1 Misconduct

Misconduct refers to inappropriate or unacceptable behavior in the workplace.

Examples include:

- Insubordination
- Disrespectful behavior

- Use of offensive language
 - Failure to follow lawful instructions
 - Unprofessional conduct
 - Misuse of company resources

5.2.2 Poor Performance

Employees are expected to perform duties competently and meet agreed performance standards.

Performance-related disciplinary action may arise from:

- Failure to meet KPIs
- Repeated mistakes
- Negligence
- Low productivity
- Failure to improve after coaching or feedback

The company will generally provide reasonable support and performance improvement opportunities before escalating disciplinary action.

5.2.3 Absenteeism and Lateness

Employees are required to maintain acceptable attendance and punctuality.

Disciplinary action may result from:

- Repeated unexplained absences
 - Chronic lateness
 - Failure to notify supervisors of absence
 - Leaving work without authorization

5.2.4 Violation of Company Policies

Employees must comply with all organizational policies and procedures.

Examples of policy violations include:

- Breach of IT policy
 - Confidentiality violations
 - Unauthorized disclosure of information
 - Failure to comply with safety procedures
 - Conflict of interest violations

5.3 Disciplinary Process

Kazi Technologies Ltd follows a progressive disciplinary process aimed at correcting behavior where possible.

The severity of disciplinary action depends on:

- Nature of misconduct
 - Frequency of incidents
 - Employee disciplinary history
 - Impact on the organization

Step 1: Verbal Warning

A verbal warning may be issued for minor first-time offenses.

The supervisor or manager will:

- Discuss the issue with the employee
 - Explain expected improvements
 - Document the discussion internally where appropriate

Step 2: Written Warning

If misconduct continues or the issue is more serious, a written warning may be issued.

The written warning will include:

- Details of the misconduct or issue
- Previous corrective actions taken
- Required improvements
- Timeline for improvement
- Consequences of further violations

Employees may be required to acknowledge receipt of the warning.

Step 3: Final Written Warning

A final written warning may be issued where:

- Previous warnings failed to resolve the issue
- The misconduct is serious but does not warrant immediate termination

The final warning will clearly state that further violations may result in termination of employment.

Step 4: Termination of Employment

Employment may be terminated where:

- Misconduct persists despite warnings
- Serious violations occur
- Trust and working relationships are irreparably damaged

Termination will be handled in accordance with employment contracts and Ugandan labor laws.

5.4 Investigation Procedures

Before major disciplinary action is taken, the company may conduct an investigation.

Investigations may include:

- Interviews
- Review of evidence

- Examination of records or systems
- Witness statements

Employees may be asked to provide explanations or participate in disciplinary meetings.

5.5 Employee Right to Respond

Employees have the right to:

- Be informed of allegations against them
- Respond to accusations
- Present supporting evidence
- Request clarification during disciplinary proceedings

The company will consider all relevant information before making disciplinary decisions.

5.6 Suspension Pending Investigation

In serious cases, employees may be suspended while investigations are conducted.

Suspension:

- May be with pay
 - Is not considered disciplinary action by itself
 - Is intended to protect workplace integrity and investigations

5.7 Gross Misconduct

Gross misconduct refers to extremely serious behavior that fundamentally breaches trust and company standards.

Gross misconduct may result in immediate termination without prior warnings.

Examples of Gross Misconduct

Theft

- Stealing company, client, or employee property
 - Unauthorized possession of company assets

Fraud

- Falsifying records
 - Payroll fraud
 - Financial dishonesty
 - Misrepresentation for personal gain

Violence and Threats

- Physical assault
 - Threatening behavior
 - Workplace intimidation
 - Possession of dangerous weapons on company premises

Serious Breach of Confidentiality

- Unauthorized disclosure of sensitive company or client information
 - Sharing payroll or employee data without authorization
 - Leaking proprietary or confidential documents

Additional Examples of Gross Misconduct

Other serious offenses may include:

- Deliberate damage to company property
- Serious harassment or discrimination
- Accessing systems without authorization
- Serious violation of IT security policies

- Reporting to work under the influence of illegal substances

5.8 Appeals Process

Employees may appeal disciplinary decisions if they believe:

- Procedures were unfair
- Evidence was inaccurate
- The disciplinary outcome was unreasonable

Appeals must:

- Be submitted in writing
- Clearly state reasons for appeal
- Be filed within the timeframe specified by HR

The company will review appeals fairly and communicate the final decision formally.

5.9 Record Keeping

The company maintains disciplinary records for administrative and legal purposes.

Records may include:

- Warnings issued
- Investigation findings
- Employee responses
- Final outcomes

Disciplinary records are treated as confidential and accessed only by authorized personnel.

5.10 Policy Compliance

All employees are expected to:

- Understand this disciplinary policy

- Cooperate with investigations
- Maintain professional conduct at all times

Failure to comply with disciplinary procedures may itself result in further disciplinary action.
