

PAYROLL POLICY

Kazi Technologies Ltd – Uganda

3.1 Salary Payments

Kazi Technologies Ltd is committed to ensuring employees are compensated accurately, consistently, and on time in accordance with employment agreements and Ugandan labor regulations.

3.1.1 Payroll Schedule

- Salaries are paid on a monthly basis
- Standard payroll payment date is the 28th day of each month
- If the 28th falls on:
 - a weekend
 - public holiday

payment may be processed on the preceding working day.

3.1.2 Payroll Processing

Payroll processing includes:

- Salary calculation
- Statutory deductions
- Approved allowances
- Overtime payments
- Authorized deductions

3.1.3 Salary Review

Employee salaries may be reviewed:

- Annually
- During promotions
- Based on company performance and market conditions

Salary reviews are not guaranteed and remain subject to management approval.

3.1.4 Confidentiality of Payroll Information

Payroll information is confidential.

Employees must not:

- Share salary details of other employees
- Access unauthorized payroll records

Unauthorized disclosure or access may result in disciplinary action.

3.2 Payment Method

Kazi Technologies Ltd uses secure and traceable payment methods for all salary disbursements.

3.2.1 Bank Transfer

- Salaries are paid exclusively through bank transfer.
- Employees must provide:
 - Accurate banking information
 - Updated account details

3.2.2 Responsibility for Correct Information

Employees are responsible for ensuring:

- Bank account details are correct
- Any changes are communicated promptly to HR or Finance

The company is not liable for delays caused by incorrect banking information submitted by employees.

3.2.3 Payslips

Employees receive electronic payslips showing:

- Gross salary
- Deductions
- Net salary
- Overtime payments
- Bonuses and allowances where applicable

Payslips are confidential and intended solely for the employee.

3.3 Payroll Deductions

Kazi Technologies Ltd complies with all statutory deduction requirements under Ugandan law.

3.3.1 Statutory Deductions

Mandatory deductions include:

A. PAYE (Pay As You Earn)

- Deducted according to Uganda Revenue Authority (URA) tax rates

B. NSSF Contributions

- National Social Security Fund deductions are processed in accordance with Ugandan regulations

3.3.2 Authorized Deductions

Additional deductions may include:

- Salary advances
- Loan repayments
- Health insurance contributions
- Pension contributions
- Court-ordered deductions

All non-statutory deductions require employee authorization unless legally mandated.

3.3.3 Incorrect Deductions

Employees who identify payroll discrepancies should:

- Report the issue immediately to HR or Finance
- Provide supporting documentation where necessary

The company will investigate and resolve confirmed discrepancies promptly.

3.4 Overtime Policy

Kazi Technologies Ltd recognizes overtime work only where operationally necessary and formally approved.

3.4.1 Eligibility

- Overtime applies primarily to eligible operational staff
- Some managerial or supervisory roles may be excluded from overtime compensation

3.4.2 Approval Requirements

- Overtime must be:
 - Pre-approved by supervisor or manager
 - Properly documented

Unauthorized overtime may not be compensated.

3.4.3 Overtime Compensation

Approved overtime is compensated at:

1.5 × employee's normal hourly rate

3.4.4 Public Holidays and Rest Days

Where employees are required to work on:

- Public holidays
- Official rest days

additional compensation or time-off arrangements may apply subject to management approval.

3.4.5 Time Tracking

Employees must accurately record overtime hours using approved company systems or procedures.

False overtime claims may result in disciplinary action.

3.5 Bonuses and Incentives

Kazi Technologies Ltd may provide bonuses and incentives to reward exceptional performance and organizational contribution.

3.5.1 Nature of Bonuses

Bonuses are:

- Performance-based
- Discretionary
- Not guaranteed

3.5.2 Bonus Considerations

Factors considered may include:

- Individual performance
- Team contribution
- Company profitability
- Achievement of KPIs
- Innovation and leadership

3.5.3 Types of Bonuses

The company may offer:

- Annual performance bonuses
- Project completion bonuses
- Sales incentives
- Spot awards or recognition incentives

3.5.4 Bonus Payment Timing

Bonuses may be paid:

- Monthly
- Quarterly
- Annually
- Upon project completion

depending on the applicable program.

3.5.5 Taxation of Bonuses

Bonuses are subject to applicable statutory deductions and taxation requirements.

3.6 Salary Advances

Kazi Technologies Ltd may consider salary advance requests under exceptional circumstances.

3.6.1 Eligibility

Salary advances:

- Are not automatic
- Require management approval

3.6.2 Recovery

Approved salary advances will typically be:

- Deducted from future payroll
- Recovered in agreed installments

3.7 Final Pay Upon Termination

Upon termination or resignation, employees are entitled to final dues subject to company clearance procedures.

3.7.1 Final Dues May Include

- Outstanding salary
- Approved leave encashment
- Approved reimbursements

3.7.2 Deductions Upon Exit

The company may deduct:

- Outstanding loans
- Unreturned company property costs
- Authorized obligations

where legally permitted.

3.8 Payroll Compliance

Kazi Technologies Ltd is committed to:

- Maintaining accurate payroll records
- Complying with Ugandan labor and tax laws

- Protecting employee payroll confidentiality